

Pricing information for our Education Coaching Programmes

One of the ways in which Coach in a Box seeks to set itself apart from its competitors is to be totally transparent in its pricing. If we are going to do some design work, run launch events or facilitate briefings we will quote separately for this in advance. The prices for our portfolio coaching programmes are shown below. These prices cover the material, setting coaches up on the Coach in a Box booking system and all the scheduled coaching sessions.

Most important of all, you will notice that our prices are the best value on the market for the quality that we deliver.

“Priceless. Personally and professionally this has made a profound difference to the way I see myself and deal with others.”

Assistant Headteacher

Prices for our Portfolio Coaching Programmes

BRONZE	£405	SILVER	£835	GOLD	£1,950
Focused three month solutions designed to help individuals break out of patterns and find different ways of approaching an issue. Ideally suited for any individual looking to create a change.		A six month programme of activity designed to help an individual make lasting progress on an issue. Ideally suited for particular audiences in an organisation where it is important to invest, not only in creating a change, but also in supporting its implementation.		Gold is designed for key individuals who would like some face to face coaching support. Ideally suited for people wanting a greater level of personal attention or facing significant personal transitions.
Includes one telephone coaching session of 60 minutes and four telephone sessions of 30 minutes each.		Includes seven telephone coaching sessions of 30 minutes and three telephone sessions of 60 minutes.		Includes seven telephone coaching sessions of 30 minutes, one telephone session of 60 minutes and two face to face sessions of two hours each.

Bespoke Programmes

Why create a bespoke programme?

To build a development journey for the specific needs of your organisation. For example together with Parkside Federation in Cambridge we built an integrated journey to meet their specific needs with their senior team. This combined both group work and one to one coaching.

Prices for Bespoke Programmes

Tailoring an organisation-specific development programme typically costs around £2,500 depending on the complexity of the design. This is a one-off cost and is additional to the 'per coachee' cost of delivering the coaching as shown by the portfolio prices above.

Executive Coaching

Executive coaching itself needs no introduction but, at Coach in a Box, we have given it our own twist.

- Our coaching prepares leaders for the future rather than the dwelling on the past. We believe executive coaches have been far too reliant on diagnostic and feedback exercises. We will offer these but will also bring some of the latest research and tools on how to lead at a senior level in a more effective way
- At senior levels the best leaders know the direct link between their own leadership and the organisation they are trying to change. Our programmes are unique in offering parallel streams looking at how to build change in the organisation and how to improve the leader's own effectiveness

Prices for Executive Coaching

A typical Coach in a Box Executive coaching assignment costs £3,600 for six, two hour face to face sessions.

We are also able to combine face to face sessions with telephone coaching sessions to provide a variety of executive coaching programmes to suit a wide range of budgets.

Please note that these prices do not include VAT, the costs of shipping coaching material to delegates or any costs incurred by Coaches who are travelling to face to face coaching sessions. All such costs are charged as receipted actuals.

Education Coaching Programmes

Over the last decade coaching has become an increasingly popular choice amongst business leaders seeking personalised support to maximise their individual, interpersonal and strategic capabilities.

Unfortunately the cost of this type of intervention was prohibitive for many of those outside the private sector; leaders of schools and classrooms have been required instead to read about developing themselves or are expected to take days out of their busy schedules to attend off-site training courses.

Coach in a Box was set up in 2006 to enable the delivery of affordable and intelligent, one-to-one coaching at scale. We offer confidential support which focuses on the needs of individuals and their organisations and which does not require taking time out of school.

We are proud to have worked with over 50 learning-focused agencies to help education professionals to fulfil their own potential and to do even better work with the children and young people in their classrooms. Here are some of the coaching programmes which we have immediately available.

SPARK FOR SCHOOL LEADERS

This programme will help you make a step change in your leadership. Ideal for Deputies or Heads who would like to enhance their leadership skills in order to create better schools for the future.

"The coaches provided me with valuable insights into myself and how I can deal with others. I have gained a lot and will continue to refer to the materials and my notes in the future."

Deputy Head

LEADERSHIP PARTNERSHIP

This programme is designed to help you examine your own leadership style and preferences when working with other leaders. It will look beyond your own school and your spans of authority and control. How can you fine tune your skills to lead systemically? What might inhibit you from working in partnership with others? How do you mobilise people for change and effectively manage tricky relationships?

"The course has strengthened my ability to be self critical and thereby enriched my reflections; a process vital to effective self management and the leadership of others."

Deputy Head

SCHOOL GOVERNORS

This programme focuses on the roles of Head Teacher and the Chair of Governors. How can you find a way of collectively leading the school that combines a strong set of shared values and an exciting shared vision with deep levels of trust and respect between parties? The energy and extraordinary results that such partnerships can create are extremely powerful for the school.

"The coaches were really good at boosting my self esteem; I left phone calls feeling like anything was possible and they helped me to see how my future might develop. I feel privileged to have been able to receive this support."

Head Teacher

LEAD

If you are new to managing people this new programme provides some welcome support to help you navigate one of the most challenging changes in your career. We will help you avoid the common pitfalls when managing others and help you create the reputation you would like as a leader right from the start.

"The programme significantly improved my skills of team building and managing people, made me realise my own strengths and weaknesses, but also clarified my vision of the manager I want to be in the future and helped me to work out what exactly needs to be done or improved in order to achieve my goals!"

ESSA Team Coordinator

COACH

This programme will help to build your confidence and capability in coaching others. If you are a Line Manager and would like to create a high performance team or have poor performers and you are not quite sure how to tackle these challenges, this programme is packed with practical and profound help.

"I have gained insight personally and achieved improved understanding and relationships with colleagues."

School Business Manager

BALANCE

If you feel pulled in many directions and really want to do your best at all that you choose to do, but find yourself frustrated with not doing anything well, Balance will help you to design a life which will make you happy.

"Coach in a Box helped me to look at small and easy wins on how to feel more in control of my home and work life balance."

Manager, Fidelity Investments

If you need more information or you cannot find exactly the right thing here, please contact us to discuss how we can tailor programmes to your specific needs.

"I have gained an enormous amount of deeper understanding of my own capacity as a leader - both tapped and untapped - and have found that the coaching I received from Coach in a Box gave me the confidence and courage to change and challenge key areas for which I am responsible - thank you!"

Head of Teaching Development, Parkside Federation