

Coach in a Box partnering with Meeting Magic

Meeting Magic Ltd was established in 1999 by two professionals with a passion for facilitation.

They specialise in helping organisations to have more productive meetings which can range from small groups (e.g. leadership team strategic meetings) through to large groups (e.g. conferences, department off-site events and away days).

They have worked with all kinds of organisations from around the world and across a wide variety of sectors (both public and private) with organisations including Mars, Microsoft, Pepsico, Vodafone, Coca-Cola, the NHS as well as various government departments.

Coach in a Box Ltd was established in 2005 with a vision to making coaching accessible for all.

They specialise in providing organisations with telephone or face to face executive coaching which can range from helping new managers transition into their first people management role through to designing a global coaching solution for high potential senior leaders.

They have worked with all kinds of organisations from around the world and across a wide variety of sectors (both public, private and third sector) with organisations including Mars, Tesco, Pepsico, O2, Coca-Cola, the NHS and in many areas of the educational sector. As at April 2010, they have coached 7100 individuals in 130 different companies, in 29 countries and in 12 languages.

How we plan to work together

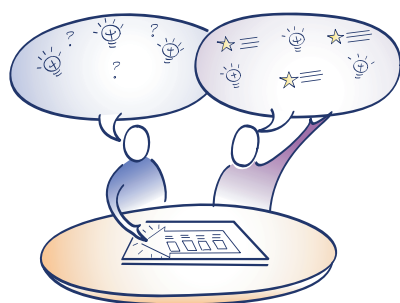

As well as facilitating and running meetings, Meeting Magic also builds internal capability to run effective meetings through training courses and one to one coaching support, either in person or virtually. They share their seven step process which aids thinking in the development and delivery of a meeting and enhance knowledge and performance. Their role can be one of remote provocateur through to hands on support including the development of meeting materials.

Through their years of experience Meeting Magic recognise that knowing how to run a productive meeting and preparing well does not always translate into the output you wish for. We can sometimes lose our confidence or self belief in the moment and therefore not be as resourceful as we would like or our nerves get the better of us and we find ourselves unable to deliver our message with as much passion and commitment as we would like.

It is in this area that Coach in a Box will bring their expertise. Through one to one coaching sessions, either following the Meeting Magic training courses or as part of a one to one coaching solution, Coach in a Box will supplement the Meeting Magic method by providing expert coaching at both a behavioural and attitudinal level to really unlock our potential to run highly effective meetings.

Typical areas our coaching can help:

- Being at my best and most resourceful when under pressure
- Increasing my presence and influence
- Handling conflict or tricky relationships
- Managing my anxiety
- Engaging and inspiring others

By combining the expertise of both companies we are able to offer our clients an exciting package of support which will transform their meeting culture.
